Keith,

I bet you can't wait till school is out. I can't wait either. I'm getting kind of tired of school. It's a real bummer. You're the greatest guy I know. I hope we never have to ~~be~~ break up. I bet you can't wait to be a tuff Junior next year. And beat up on the poor freshmen. I can't think of anything to say. So sorry if it sounds like I'm a little confused and all. Of course I guess I am. Oh well. If we ever do break up, I hope we can still be great friends. Well now that I've taken up half a page... Love you always.

INDEX 91 ....

This has been a time of growing & changing.
No, perhaps it has been a prelude to growth & change.
It is a time of (in) sight;
of realizing that we are human beings who can never be born enough.

ORGANIZATIONS 19/ SPORTS 45/

ADVERTISEMENTS 81/

But in this time of rebirth some are reading too much color into black and white (the un-colors) while others still see to much difference between the two.
Are we building walls to walk around or barriers to hide behind?

So here's a "nickle on the grass" to you,
my friend, for your spirit, enthusiasm, sacrifice,
and courage--but most of all to your friendship.
Yours is a dying breed and when you are gone-- the world will be a lesser place.

In Memoriam

Robert E. Carey

There was a time when meadow, grove, and stream,
The earth, and every common sight,
To me did seem Appareled in celestial light,
The glory and the freshness of a dream.
It is not now as it hath been of yore;--
Turn wheresoe'er I may,
By night or day,
The things which I have seen I now can see no more.

Then sing, ye Birds, sing, sing a joyous song!
And let the young Lambs bound
As to the tabor's sound!
We in thought will join your throng,
Ye that pipe and ye that play,
Ye that through your hearts today
Feel the gladness of the May!
What though the radiance which was once so bright
Be now forever taken from my sight,
Though nothing can bring back the hour
Of splendor in the grass, of glory in the flower;
We will grieve not, rather find Strength in what remains behind;
In the primal sympathy
Which having been must ever be;
In the soothing thoughts that spring
Out of human suffering;
In the faith that looks through death,
In years that bring the philosophic mind.

Peace on Earth

it's all too much i decided--- the world. it's too discouraging and bleak,

so i left and walked and found a sunny knoll covered with alluringly soft grass.

i lay down

my knees in the air and i decided this was the life- just existing until death

there was no use in struggling- there could be no peace, only war:

no love , only hate:

no freedom, only oppression:

no hope. i rolled over and noticed the depression in the grass where my body had been

but as i watched,

each blade, in convulsive jerks struggled to regain its former position,

i sat and thought,

and realized that no effort is futile:

for is a blade of grass any stronger than a man?

today

i thought i found

new hope

i felt a comforting warmth growing and growing deep inside of me, like the warmth of a small campfire in the fall.

Peace

but the warmth within me is dying now, overpowered by the storm outside.

TODAY I HAVE NO STRENGTH

FOR LOST CAUSES.

i had a voice and a hope,

but, being a victim of society's silent

denial,

no one listened.

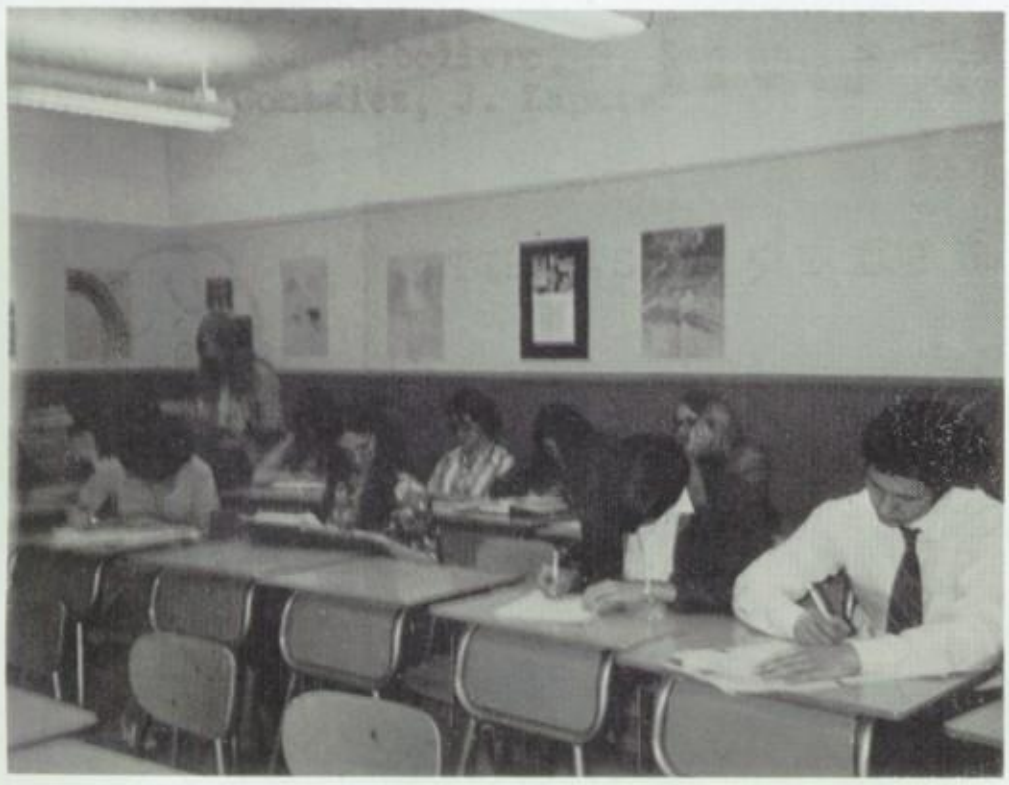
YEARBOOK

The 70-71 Cresta Azul staff strove to make the best yearbook ever. Many new attractions were added this year, including more action shots and a new organization for the book. All this was put together with tender-loving care to make this outstanding book presented to you by our staff: Michele La Cross, Nora Stidham, Lolly White, Spencer Land, Michel' Mead, Jeff Almour, Judi Penrod, and Pete Henderson.



NEWSPAPER

The Hum of the Hive expanded from a small ditto paper in 1965, to an offset, standard fold paper in 1971. We are very proud of their achievments. Business and Journalism cooperate to produce the Hum of the Hive. The staff: Gaylan Thomas, Rex Brown, Karin Higgins, Jodie Magill, Katye Atwood, Daphne Webb, Audrey Fletcher, Nancy Young, and Marian Lee.

Students become knowledgeable consumers as they study the various prices of goods available in stores. From left to right, Ronda Dawson, Sharon Poe, Karen Plunkett, and Pam Nelson.

THE LIBERAL ARTS

Students from the Blue Ridge High School Choir practice for the Solo and Ensemble Contest. The contest was held in St. Johns on February 12. Students practicing their solos are, left to right: Nancy Barnes, Nora Stidham, John Vallery, Paula Romero, and Terry Frost.

The enlivening chords of "Hello Dolly" add enthusiasm and encouragement to the team and their fans during the Homecoming Parade. The band marched in the parade and later played for the Homecoming Queen elections during half-time.

Led by their infallible characters, David Jacobs and Loy Wilhelm struggle on to solve the mysteries of Chemistry.

These white rats were a long-term project for the Biology classes this year. Rochelle Meyer takes advantage of the friendliness of the small creatures.

CLASSROOM ACTIVITY ENJOYED BY ALL STUDENTS

The afternoon seemed brighter in Consumer Economics when Kimberly Mellchert visited the class. Students left to right are, Terry Nelson, Steve Pacheco, Pam Nelson and Chad Herd.

Occasionally time is taken from tedious bookwork and is used for more enjoyable activity. Seated at his desk, Mr. Salter dozes.

WOODWORKING

The class of woodworking provides the opportunity for students to develop craftsmenship. Creative and original ideas are revealed in the many individual projects designed by the students. A few of these projects include Chess sets, gun racks, tables, bowls, lamps and shelves. The students find Shop to be a rewarding and enjoyable art.

Dennis Dupuis gets a good start on his project by use of the table saw.

Each student works diligently to complete his craft.

John Vallery adds the finishing touches to his box.

Bob Connors rounds off the edges of his gun rack.

SCHOOL LIFE

The opening of school brought many new faces, changes, lost expressions, new schedules , new teachers, confused students and general hysteria. The new freshmen had to get to learn their way around, the sophomores finally had a little more authority, the Jr's were upperclassmen at last, the seniors had made ot to the top.

Finally the day settled into a scheduled routine and everything began to go smoothly.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

This year whether new or old, students participated by showing school spirit. Cheerleaders and Pep Club members helped to boost spirits by making signs, and holding pep assemblies. Money raised button sales and pompons sent our Cheerleaders on "all away" games.

The pom pon squad at B.R. this year worked hard to present their fine routines to sports' fans. Performing to the strains of "Sunny," "Guantanamara," and "Jingle Bells," the girls used many new and cute movements in their performances. Captain Sue LaCross kept the girls hopping at practice to have routines ready for games and Pep Rallies. The group was cheerful and diligent, practicing every night til 4:30.

We appreciate the school spirit these students have shown this year and all the other years they have attended Blue Ridge. The girls are: Sue LaCross, Vicki Calhoun, Wanda Hulbert, Pam Stuart, Sondra Yeast, Gracie Cannon, Judi Penrod, Pam Nelson, Pam Rose, Dale Swenson, Coleen Erringer, and Isabell Pacheco.

B.R.H.S. BAND

The Blue Ridge Band has had a number of good experiences this year. Under the fine direction of Mr. Encke, they performed at the State Fair, and was invited to compete in the marching contest there. The members added loud enthusiasm to the pep rallies, and entertained the student body and community with well-prepared concerts. These are only a few of the many contributions they have made. We owe the band all our thanks!

B.R.H.S. CHOIR

madrigal

The choir brought many fine concerts this year under the direction of Mr. Hess. Showing their vocal ability, they sang a wide variety of songs. Several styles, eras, and song-writers were represented in their selections.

This year, the group sang for many special occasions, including the Bob Carey Memorial Dinner, Christmas and Spring Concerts, Contest in Thatcher, and going "On Tour" in the spring.

The choir's accompanist, Nora Stidham, proved herself a fine and willing pianist through out the year. Nora has remarkable talent and the choir is indebted to her for helping to make their concerts successful.

Homecoming Queen

Homecoming this year was on Nov. 6, 1970. Yellow Jackets vs. Alchesay Falcons. Though the game was an exciting one, and the team played with high spirits, we were defeated 24-12.

At half time the homecoming royalty and winning floats were named. Becky Fernandez was queen. Freshman float won first place honors.

Paperbacks are a popular new edition to the library.

This year our library was under new librarianship. Our new librarians were Mrs. Sullivan and Mrs. Sansom. These ladies worked very hard to make the library appealing to all the students at B.R., by making bulletin boards, trading books, selling books, and making the library a recreation area at noon and before and after school.
